Domaine de La Bonserine, Condrieu 2017. Rhône Valley, France 27

The Northern Rhone Valley estate was founded in 1972 by Alfred Gerin, along with an American partner/investor. Today, Domaine de Bonserine is owned by Ets. Guigal, who purchased the estate in 2006. Domaine de Bonserine is situated in the north of Cote Rotie in Verenay, just a bit northeast of the town Ampuis. Domaine de Bonserine owns 10.5 hectares of vines in Cote Rotie, making de Bonserine the second largest vineyard owner in the entire Cote Rotie appellation. The vines are planted in some of the best terroir in the appellation on both the Cote Blonde and Cote Brune. The terroir is mostly steep hillsides with iron-rich schist and mica soils. All their work in the vineyard is done on a sustainable, farming basis. No chemicals, pesticides or herbicides of any type are ever used.

Mount Eden Vineyards, Chardonnay 2013. California, USA 37

Mount Eden Vineyards is a 60-year-old fine wine estate located 600 meters above the Santa Clara Valley. This is one of the oldest continuous producers of estate bottled Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in California. The synergy of the vine selection, soil, low yields, climate and minimalistic handling of the wine in the cellar creates chardonnays that are capable to age for a decade.

This is a forceful wine, giving power and concentration from beginning to end, with aromas of honeysuckle, lime zest, hazelnut and earth come through with abundance.

Bodega Numanthia, 2013 Castilla y Leon, Toro, Spain 35

Numanthia is the Estate's signature, renowned as the reference for the Toro designation. It is a blend of grapes from more than 100 parcels of the finest terroirs offering unique balance, elegance and power. Numanthia's style depends on the selection of exceptional vines, aged between 50 and 100 years old, ungrafted and non-irrigated.

Numanthia 2013 is an intense wine with cherry and fig aromas, a touch of black chocolate and black pepper, as well as light mint and liquorice notes. Sharp on the entry, with firm and elegant tannins. Refreshingly acidic, on the palate it becomes a fleshy, balanced wine with a potent, unctuous evolution that offers great complexity. Its finish is long and persistent, with sophisticated pure cocoa notes.

Torres, "Gran Coronas - Mas La Plana" 1989. Penedès, Catalonia, Spain 45

Previously known as the 'black label', Torres' most prestigious vineyard, Mas La Plana is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon. Mas La Plana is one of the most (if not the most) famous Cabernet Sauvignons from Spain. Torres rose to fame at the Paris Wine Olympiad, when the 1970 vintage beat other famous wines from around the world, including some of the best from Bordeaux.

1989 was a fantastic vintage in Penedès and showcases soft cool leafy fruit, spices, olives and earth. The wine is balanced but the fruit is softening with coffee and tobacco being the current major flavours now.
